I'd like to thank my parents who never believed in me, fans for loving my muscles, 2PAC for dying so early, Loulou and Kiki-Bob my 2 hungry Lions, Rolex for making big and shiny watches and Barack Obama for being (at least half) a black man. Of course, nothing would have been possible without the support of my cocaine dealer. I dedicate this album (except the tune "Better In Scurvy Time") to my beloved first wife Miss Celina for always standing by me and feeding my junky bum ass at home.
